* 3.1 Please briefly describe the activities you have carried out during your mobility period.

2000 character(s) maximum

The course was divided into modules related to the use of artificial intelligence, metaverse and augmented reality learning environments, as well as games that do not involve technology but require and develop the soft skills of both teachers and students: communication, teamwork, creativity, adaptability, problem-solving, work ethic, critical thinking and conflict management.

More specifically, I have taken classes on: "AI" in Education, formative assessment applications, interactive images, engaging apps for easy classroom use, project-based learning and instructional videos, using digital media that stimulate the development of team building and collaboration strategies, competitive games to foster participation and enhance student motivation, Role playing games to encourage communication and make formative assessment more fun, integrate ICT and Digital Tools into outdoor teaching and learning, practical examples of learning activities performed outdoors, learning through interactive learning games, teambuilding treasure hunt activity through the application GooseChase.

3.2 What did you learn as a result of participating in your mobility activity? Please try to be specific and mention concrete skills that you have improved and knowledge that you have gained.

I learned to use applications such as: chatGPT, Plickers, SlidesMania, Thinklink, WordArt, VITA, GooseChase, all tools that will definitely be useful in making lessons with my students more engaging and creative.

I learned to work outdoors, but using applications such as Augmented Reality (AR) through which immersive learning environments, such as the metaverse, can be used.

Finally, we explored the importance of the student teacher-teacher relationship with colleagues, what should be the characteristics of a good teacher in human terms.

This experience allowed me to increase my digital skills, but also those related to communication, teamwork, creativity, adaptability, problem-solving, work ethic, critical thinking and conflict management.

The Erasmus+ experience was an extraordinary opportunity that allowed me to grow both personally and professionally. One of the most fascinating aspects was meeting colleagues from different nations. This cultural diversity created a stimulating environment in which the use of English as a language of communication was inevitable. This practice not only improves language skills but also promotes intercultural understanding and open-mindedness.

An essential part of the Erasmus experience has been discovering a new city; on these occasions one is immersed in a different culture, savoring unique foods, traditions and ways of life. This adventure broadens one's view of the world and fosters a deeper appreciation of global challenges.

In addition, Erasmus offers the opportunity to see the school system from a broader perspective. Through confrontation with different teaching methods, one gains a more comprehensive understanding of how education is approached in different parts of the world. This experience is a springboard for developing a more global perspective on education and learning.
